Room: San Miguel

Sunday, October 20

8:30 – 5:00  Task Force/Work Group Meetings

9:00 – 12:00  Morning Meetings

Tribal TANF Task Force
Room: Acoma/Tesuque/Zuni
The NCAI Tribal TANF Task Force will discuss current Administrative and legislative initiatives impacting Tribal TANF nationally, with the goal of highlighting solutions and discovering best practices in order to overcome barriers to the delivery of programs. The Tribal TANF Task Force has consistently supported goals to increase tribal nations’ authority to administer their own family support and work readiness programs, and will continue to identify solutions to increase program efficiency.

Two Spirit Task Force
Room: Isleta/Jemez
The role of NCAI’s Two Spirit Task Force is to assist in the coordination, collaboration, and outreach to Indian Country on Two Spirit issues and to develop and share approaches and solutions to policy issues that affect Two Spirit/LGBTQ community members in a manner consistent with tribal self-determination.

NCAI Task Force on Tax and Finance
Room: Mesilla
The Task Force on Tax and Finance will facilitate Indian Country’s input on issues within the Treasury Tribal Advisory Committee’s purview; organize tribal priorities on legislative tax policy; facilitate Indian Country on developing and proposing solutions to dual taxation; and share information regarding tribal-state tax agreements.

Violence Against Women Task Force
Room: Ruidoso
The Violence Against Women Task Force serves as a unified tribal voice opposed to violent crimes perpetrated against Native women. The Task Force will hear updates from key federal partners, discuss the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act and other important legislative priorities, and share information and experiences related to the crisis of missing and murdered Native women.

Developing Your Civic Engagement Plan of Action
Room: Navajo/Nambe

In this session, we encourage people involved in voter engagement and Census 2020 work within their tribal nations to participate in an interactive workshop focused on developing a civic engagement plan of action for their community. Different resources will be shared; tactics for increasing voter registration and increasing your overall count for community will be discussed. Materials will include an afternoon of developing social media campaign toolkits and some sample Get out the Native Vote and Indian Country Counts materials. Please bring a laptop or tablet to this session.

1:00 – 4:00
Afternoon Meetings

Federal Recognition Task Force
Room: Mesilla

The Federal Recognition Task Force is intended to address the unique interests of non-federally recognized Indian tribes, including issues such as the federal acknowledgment process, how non-federally recognized tribes work with state and local entities, and other issues. The Federal Recognition Task Force invites all interested tribal nations and tribal citizens to participate.

Large Land Base Tribal Nations Task Force
Room: Acoma/Tesuque/Zuni

The purpose of the Large Land Base Tribal Nations Task Force is to strengthen the ability of NCAI to advocate for the unique issues of the tribal nations with large land bases, and to foster unity and cooperation among all tribal nations to preserve tribal sovereignty, lands, cultures, and quality of life for all. The Task Force will govern its own proceedings consistent with this purpose.

NCAI Native Languages Task Force
Room: Isleta/Jemez

Developments in Native languages have taken place at the tribal, state, and federal policy levels. Tribal nations are taking innovative approaches to revitalizing their languages, and states are adopting Native languages as official state languages. This is an open session of the Native Languages Task Force to discuss Native American language protection and revitalization from tribal leaders’ perspectives.

Addiction Task Force
Room: San Miguel
Continuing the discussion at NCAI’s Mid-Year Conference last June, the Addiction Task Force will showcase a new resource for prevention work, including case studies on cultural approaches to prevention, and youth perspective and opportunities.

Room: Ruidoso
The Violence Against Women Task Force serves as a unified tribal voice opposed to violent crimes perpetrated against Native women. The Task Force will hear updates from key federal partners, discuss the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act and other important legislative priorities, and share information and experiences related to the crisis of missing and murdered Native women.

The Tribal Border Caucus
Room: Pecos
Tribal crossings of the U.S.-Canada and U.S.-Mexico borders for traditional, cultural or religious purposes has been a paramount concern of tribal nations split by the invisible lines that divide their homelands and relatives. The Tribal Border Caucus invites all northern and southern border tribes to provide updates and discuss ongoing issues such as travel visas, treaty rights, and searches of tribal regalia or items.

Census Create-a-thon with National Congress of American Indians and the Census Open Innovation Labs
Room: Navajo/Nambe
During the Civic Engagement Day of the NCAI Annual Convention, you’re welcomed to join the Census Open Innovation Lab for a Create-a-thon to help get out the count during the 2020 Census. In this interactive workshop, you’ll take everything you learned about the importance of Census outreach, and work hand in hand with local creatives and tribal census count coalition leaders to develop digital content to reach your community.

NCAI Climate Action Task Force Meeting
Room: Hopi/Tewa
The working mission of the Climate Action Task Force (CATF) is to “document, inform, and support the climate action efforts of tribal nations and Native organizations, and identify and advocate for policies and funding designed to empower their ability to engage in effective, sustainable climate action.” This meeting will be led by the four CATF Co-Chairs.

Census Bureau Consultation*
Room: Picuris
Through the tribal consultation, Census Bureau staff will provide tribal communities with further details on the Census Bureau's plans to modernize its disclosure avoidance methodology for the 2020 Census and potential changes to the 2020 Census data products.

Advancing Tribal Renewable Energy and Economic Development Through Tribal Government-Foundation Partnerships
Room: Taos
The Hopi Tribe, Navajo Nation, and the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) will discuss a pilot project intended to advance large-scale renewable energy projects to help support tribal nation’s efforts to diversify their economies. The pilot project was designed through input provided by tribal nations at a series of listening sessions, and is intended to meet tribal staff and leadership where they are and help accelerate their projects through the stages where they might otherwise falter. Come join us for this engaging discussion.

DOI Listening Session – Buy Indian Act Updates*
Room: Laguna
The Department of the Interior (DOI) is hosting this tribal listening session to discuss proposed revisions to Buy Indian Act regulations that will, among other things, remove current restrictions and allow DOI to apply the Buy Indian Act to all types of construction.

Building Sustainable Economies: How to Create, Maximize, and Explain Your Impact
Room: Santa Ana
This breakout session will bring together leaders of economy-building tribal nations and leading academics to discuss the keys to building sustainable tribal economies, how tribal leaders need to work strategically to maximize the benefits of tribal economic activity, and the often incredible impact that tribal economies are making beyond reservation boundaries.

The Protect ICWA Campaign: How you Can Help in the Fight to Protect Native Children and Tribal Sovereignty Today
Room: Cochiti
Thanks to the tireless efforts of tribal nations, tribal organizations, advocates, and allies, native children and families prevailed in the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals Brackeen v. Bernhardt case. While this win has been monumental for Indian Country, the opposing parties will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. Over the past year NCAI, NICWA, NARF, and AAIA have worked together to create the Protect ICWA Campaign to help coordinate policy, legal, and communications efforts in order to protect native children and uphold the Indian Child Welfare Act. This panel will focus on the outcome of the 5th Circuit ruling and how you can join the Protect ICWA Campaign as we head into next stage of the case.

Long-Term Care Success Stories: Providing for Elders, People with Disabilities, and Veterans
Room: Pecos
Long-Term Care is crucial for elders, people with disabilities, and veterans to receive necessary daily care in a respectful and safe way. This session will focus on strategies for accessing funding, expanding services/reimbursements in communities, supporting caregivers, and how to advocate for long-term care for Indian Country.

Going Green: Industrial Hemp and Tribal Next Steps
Room: Hopi/Tewa
As required by the 2018 Farm Bill, the USDA is drafting regulations wherein Tribes and States may apply to the USDA for approval to administer hemp production in their jurisdictions. In this Breakout Session we will discuss the current status of the USDA regulations and what is next for Indian Country.

Starting and Sustaining Your Tribal Emergency Management Program
Room: Isleta/Jemez
Tribal nations are often the first and only lines of defense when natural and man-made disasters strike Indian Country. When responding to disasters tribal nations work to save both tribal and non-tribal citizens lives but have few resources to build capacity and sustain a working emergency management program. This breakout will focus on ways tribal nations have built and sustained their emergency management programs. In addition, panelist will examine the process for tribal nations to declare a state of emergency to access federal funds and the Tribal Homeland Security Grant Program.

Recommended Speakers:
Jeffery Hansen, Director, Office of Emergency Management, Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma
Denise (Bambi) Kraus, National Tribal Affairs Advisor, Federal Emergency Management Agency

Preparing your Nation for the 2.5GHz Band Auction
Room: Mesilla
The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) announced its plans to auction off spectrum licenses in the 2.5 GHz band. The 2.5GHz band is prime spectrum for next generation broadband operations, including 5G mobile operations. As part of this auction, the FCC will hold a tribal priority window to enable tribal nations to obtain 2.5 GHz licenses to provide service on rural tribal lands. NCAI has partnered with Google and Mural Net so that every tribal nation may understand the upcoming tribal priority window and how to apply. For tribal nations that vote to secure licenses, Google will donate legal assistance and funds required to complete the application through a specialty firm.

Helping Victims of Crime in Indian Country: From Resource Mapping to Sustainable Funding
*Room:
Tribal citizens in Indian Country experience some of the highest crime victimization rates in the nation. When victims seek help, it is hard for them to find adequate resources or wrap around services to meet their needs. Over the past three years, NCAI has worked with partners to identify resources and gaps for victims of crime in Indian Country by launching the tribal resource tool. In addition to the tool, Congress recently appropriated a tribal set-aside from the Crime Victims Fund (CVF) to assist tribal victims. However, there have been roadblocks to assuring that the Department of Justice distributes all of these funds to tribal nations. In this breakout panelist will demonstrate the tribal resource tool, premier

The Current Landscape of Tribal Self-Governance and Sovereign Immunity

Room: Taos

Tribal sovereign immunity is a core attribute that tribal nations rely upon to exercise self-governance and to help diversify tribal fiscal resources. Recently there have been more and more challenges to tribal sovereign immunity and it will be important for tribal leaders to understand the landscape in this area and what efforts are being taken to help protect tribal sovereign immunity. Please join us for this important and informing discussion.

Other Meetings and Events

The meetings and events listed below are included to share other opportunities to network and come together on a particular topic. The meetings and events are not part of NCAI’s main agenda.

Sunday, October 20

8:30am-5:00pm
FCC Tribal Radio Summit
Room: Laguna
A day-long overview of the importance of radio to Tribal lands and the benefits that flow from Tribally owned radio stations, followed by a discussion of FCC programs designed to foster the licensing and operation of Tribal radio stations, and the legal, engineering and financial considerations Tribes should consider when deciding whether to seek a radio-station license from the FCC.

9:00am-12:00pm
Emerging Roles of TEDs/TEAs
Room: San Juan
Tribal Education Departments/Tribal Education Agencies have important roles in the future of tribal nations. TEDs/TEAs have significant opportunities and roles to determine current and future local, state and federal policies affecting the success of tribal citizen students. Presentations will include tribal education codes and importance of acquiring and utilizing tribal student data.

11:00am-5:00pm
Governor’s Interstate Indian Council
Room: Chaco
The Governor's Interstate Indian Council organization works through state governments to address issues and concerns of Native nations. State Indian Affairs Directors and Commissioners, tribal representatives and state delegates from across the nation will meet to address the most current issues facing American Indians. States are encouraged to participate by sending at least one representative to the meetings. During the meeting, the GIIC may pass resolutions in support of initiatives that impact Tribal Nations in a positive way and offers an opportunity for attendees to network and share information and experiences. State Representatives given provided an opportunity to report on their state initiatives and share examples of positive state and tribal government relations. The agenda provides a forum for presenters to inform and update members on issues facing Indian communities. At the end of the meeting the goal is to come up with new ideas in supporting one another in building stronger positive state and tribal relations.
