Two very special FREE HEALTH events are happening during NCAI's 75th Anniversary Convention, and both are part of NCAI's Annual convention.

Partnering for the Health of All Native Nations

These events are sponsored by the Native Ministries Department of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Oklahoma. The Native Ministries Department provides American Indian Living™ magazine and funding and rights for American Indian Living Radio™. These are Native Spirit filled people sharing the love of our Creator for real healing of our people and our Nations.

These event is designed for Health Directors, Tribal CFOs, Tribal Chairs and Council Members. Physician speakers will discuss ways to lower health care cost, along with opportunities for Indian communities to access programming that will train both health personnel on the Nation and programs for the communities.

Improving the individual lives of our people helps their health care costs diminish. There are also ways to cut costs while increasing our quality of care. These goals align with NCAI's theme of "Shaping the Future."

A formal, free buffet meal plus two free books on health topics, crucial to every Tribal community, will be given to each attendee (book values exceed $60).
