

2018 NCAI Annual Convention
Denver, CO

Resources and Tools to Support Tribes in Building
Systems of Support for Native Youth

Monday, October 22, 2108
9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Room: Capitol Ballroom 3

NCAI is partnering with the National Indian Education Association, National Indian Child Welfare Association and National Indian Health Board on the First Kids 1st initiative, which is focused on helping tribes build systems of support for Native youth to thrive. During this session, the FK1st partners will share new resources and tools to help tribes identify and document their community assets, create and strengthen effective systems of support for youth, and understand how they can better exert sovereignty over the education of their students.

AGENDA:

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| 9:00 – 9:15 a.m. | Welcome, Introductions, Overview of FK1st Initiative |
| 9:15 – 9:45 a.m. | Resources for School Choice and Knowing Data for Your Communities |
| 9:45 – 10:15 a.m. | Resources for Tribal Action in Education, Data, Communication |
| 10:15 – 10:45 a.m. | Resources for Tribal Policy and Youth Leadership |
| 10:45 – 11:15 a.m. | Resources for Community Asset Mapping, Advocacy and Youth Engagement |
| 11:15 – 11:25 a.m. | Native Youth Response |
| 11:25 – 11:50 a.m. | Q&A/Discussion |
| 11:50 – 12:00 p.m. | Closing Remarks |