

“Happy, healthy tribal members and families, well educated and well trained, able to survive and thrive anywhere in the world, but who choose to live at home.”

“Providing financial literacy at all levels.”

“Create a tribal value statement for long term economic development, that is driven by the community.”

“Economic development that empowers sovereignty, is culturally appropriate and spiritually balanced.”

“All tribal members are contributors to new global economy.”

“Teaching our children to be responsible leaders.”

“We need to keep our language,
culture and tradition intact;
let’s not lose sight of who we are.”

“Improve economic well being of
all tribal members.”

“Resources to support
community and cultural needs.”

“Sustainable, diverse economies with adaptability to change over time to ensure the health, welfare and financial security of tribal communities for seven generations while being respectful of cultural and traditional values of the community.”

“Safe stable sustainable community, draw on cultural support and values.”

“Improve economic life of all tribal members.”

“Strong community with positive
social conditions.”

