Curriculum Development, Lesson Planning and Language Activities for Early Childhood Immersion

June 30, July 1 & 2, 2014

Embassy Suites Hotel

1000 Woodward Place NE, Albuquerque, NM

Workshop Overview

This three-day workshop is a follow-up to the Language Immersion Planning and Methodology for Early Childhood/Head Start Workshops offered in April & June 2013 and April 2014. The workshop will focus more in depth the development of curriculum, lesson plans, language activities, and materials development for Early Childhood / Head Start programs. There will be hands-on activities and practice sessions for participants. This workshop is recommended for parents, grandparents, caregivers, teachers, and community people who interact regularly with early childhood/Head Start age groups where Native language is the main language of activity.

Recommended for Preschool/Head Start teachers and staff, parents, caregivers, tribal leaders, program directors, administrators, language supporters, language advocates.
