Emergency Management Overview for Tribal Leaders (L0583)

Monday, June 27, 2016

1:00 – 5:00 p.m.

At the 2016 NCAI Mid-Year Conference & Marketplace
Spokane Convention Center
334 W Spokane Falls Blvd, Spokane, WA
ROOM 302B

Tribal leaders seeking to successfully prepare for, respond to, and recover from incidents and disasters will benefit from an understanding of emergency management concepts and operations. Added insight into emergency management concepts is even more critical in light of the 2013 amendments to the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act that provide Tribal Governments the ability to directly request federal disaster assistance.

This four-hour course is designed to help tribal leaders understand how an effective emergency management can improve the sustainability of their tribal community and better protect tribal citizens, lands, culture, and sovereignty.

Course topics will include:

- The components of an effective emergency management program
- The role of a Tribal Emergency Manager
- The roles of tribal leaders in emergency management
- An overview of FEMA programs available to tribal governments

Upon completion of the course, participants submitting an application will be mailed an Emergency Management Institute certificate of completion for .4 CEUs.

Participants will be required to enter a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID) on your application. PRIOR TO THE CLASS, please obtain an SID by going to <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/> . Please bring your FEMA SID number with you to the class.

Intended Audience: Tribal elected and appointed officials and department heads.

Space is limited to 25 participants
