

Save the Date

The 2019 Inaugural Indian Country Public Safety Summit

National Indian Programs
Training Center
Albuquerque, New Mexico
August 26-27, 2019

This two day session will focus on identifying and coordinating public safety resources for Indian Country Public Safety and an opportunity for federal partners to discuss public safety priorities with Tribal Leaders, Indian Country Chiefs of Police, Tribal Judges, and Tribal Prosecutors. We want to hear from you on ways to stop the escalating cycle of violence occurring in Indian Country Communities.

Special Speakers

Tara Katuk Sweeney
Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs
Department of the Interior

Charles Addington
Director
BIA, Office of Justice Services

To request an invitation or for additional information, please email
Catherine.abeita@bia.gov

